

Correlation

Use the following format to write your correlation essay. Attach the article and cite the article source, article title, date, and page number on your essay. Essays must be typed, and each paragraph must be at least 3-5 sentences.

1st Paragraph: Introduction

Explain the importance of learning history and how the statement "Those who don't learn history are doomed to repeat it." Give a thesis statement that ties in the correlation.

2nd Paragraph: Current Event

Give a detailed summation of the current event, and why the story is important.

3rd Paragraph: Historical Event

Give a detailed summation of the historical event, and why the story is important.

4th Paragraph: Correlation

Give a detailed explanation of how the two events relate to each other citing similarities in the circumstances, people, and results of the two events.

5th Paragraph: Conclusion

Explain the lesson to be learned by the above correlation.

