

Revolutionary War Essay

The British
Taxes
Boston Tea Party
Massacre
Raids

Colonists
Bullying
Powerful
Soldiers
Enemies

The British prior to the start of the Revolutionary War bullied American colonists.

Directions: Using the sentence in the word bank above write one paragraph about bullying. You may also use any of the words in the bank. Remember that the British bullied the American colonists prior to the Revolutionary War. Please include information about the British acts of bullying and write in complete sentences. Please use periods and watch for misspelled words. Your paragraph must have at least six sentences and written on lined paper.

Picture Assignment

Directions: Using a separate sheet of tag board draw a picture that shows a British soldier bullying an American colonist. Please use the entire sheet of paper, use at least three different colors and do not use stick figures. I know that all of you can draw and I can't wait to see your work!