

Roald Dahl Power Point Rubric

CRITERIA	1 POINT	2 POINTS	3 POINTS	4 POINTS
Storyboard	Incomplete slides and no overview of presentation.	The six slides are not in a logical order, are incomplete or have incomplete information.	The six slides are in a logical order and are informative.	The six slides are in a logical order, include important information, colors, fonts, and required graphic(s).
Content	Subject knowledge is not evident. Information is confusing and incorrect or is copied directly from the interview. All six slides may not be present.	Some knowledge is evident, but some information is confusing and/or incorrect. Some information is not in students' own words. All six slides may not be present.	Knowledge is evident in much of the project. Most information is clear/correct on the one introduction and five informational slides. The information is in the students' own words.	Clear/correct information is presented on all six slides. Includes an introduction slide and five facts. Information is in the students' own words.
Layout/ Transitions	The layout is confusing, cluttered and does not use space well. The text is very difficult to read. Few/no transitions.	The layout shows some structure but the space is not used well, and is cluttered or empty. Overall readability is difficult. Transitions between some slides.	The layout uses slide space well. Most slides are easy to read with an appropriate font size/style. Transitions are present between most/all slides.	The layout shows excellent structure is and uses space well. Font size/style/ is well chosen for easy readability. Transitions are present between all slides.
Presentation	Presentation is difficult to follow and understand. Both students have little eye contact and read from slide.	Presentation is difficult to follow in parts. Some organization and eye contact by both students, but much reading.	Presentation is fairly easy to follow. Organization appealing. Eye contact with audience by both students.	Effective and well-organized presentation. Both students make excellent eye contact and have a complete presentation.

The final grade for _____ and _____ is ___/16 or a ___%.

