Hello Amphi Families & Students,

I hope you are doing well with all of the recent events. This packet contains two weeks of work for the following classes:

- Pre-Emergent/ Emergent ELD Integrated Reading
- Pre-Emergent/ Emergent ELD Integrated Writing
- Pre-Emergent/Emergent ELD Intervention
- Math Study Skills

Students should be spending about 20 minutes a day on activities & are welcome to contact me for help. My email is ecooper@amphi.com, or I can be reached by phone at (520) 260-0851.

Families should plan to return assignments in one of the following ways:

- Put all work back in the envelope and drop it off at AMS on Wednesday or Thursdays from 10:00am-2:00pm.
- Or put all work back in the envelope and drop it off at Keeling, Rio Vista or Holaway on Fridays from 8:00am-12:00pm. Look for the black bin labeled "AMS."

I'd like to also remind students that they can still log on to Imagine Reading online, as well as Freckle math. If you need login information please contact me.

Sincerely,

Ms. Cooper

They're from My Neighborhood

► Pronoun-Verb Contractions

Contractions squish two words into one

A. You can put a pronoun and a verb together to form a contraction.

I + am = I'm	I'm on the sidewalk.
you + are = you're	You're slow.
he + is = he's she + is = she's it + is = it's	It's a sunny day.
we + are = we're	We're glad to be together.
they + are = they're	They're in the park.

B. Combine the words in dark type to make a contraction. Use the contraction to complete the sentence.

 Sam and Kim are Mia's friends. __ her neighbors. (They are)

Mia walks the dogs for Sam and Kim. _____ happy to do it.

3. One dog stops to rest. _____ a small dog. (He is)

4. Mia laughs at the dog. "_____ slow, Biff." (You are)

5. "You can rest, Biff. _____ not in a hurry." (We are)

Mia waits for Biff. _____ nice to all the dogs. (She is)

People look at the dogs. __ _____ surprised to see so many! (They are)

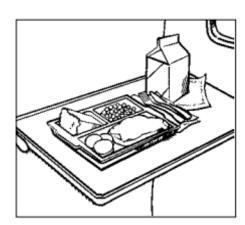

8. Soon the walk is over. _____ time to eat. (It is)

I Don't Want This Food!

Contractions with not

Contract means to make something shorter

A. When you make a contraction, you join two words together.

$$is + not = isn't$$
 $do + not = don't$ $are + not = aren't$ $does + not = doesn't$

Use these contractions in negative sentences.

The food on the plane isn't very good.

The cookies aren't big.

The cake doesn't have nuts.

I don't want anything to eat.

B. Read each sentence. Change the underlined words to a contraction. Then complete the new sentence.

- He is not happy. He __isn't__ happy.
- He does not like the food. He _____ like the food.

- She does not eat the cake. She _____ eat the cake.
- The cake is not sweet. The cake _____ sweet.

- 5. They do not want to eat. They _____ want to eat.
- They are not hungry. They _____ hungry.

Language Development

Everyone Helps

► Grammar: Present Tense Verbs > Present means it is happening right now or today €

To tell what another person or thing does, use a verb that ends in -s.

The Ali family owns a store.

It keeps them busy.

Mr. Ali works hard.

Mrs. Ali helps.

Read each sentence. Add the correct form of the action verb.

Mr. Ali ___ (clean)

the sidewalk. (sweep)

a box for Mr. Ali. (move)

fresh apples. (hold) _____ the money. Mrs. Ali ____ (take)

She ___ _ the man. (thank)

4.

a flower. (cut)

_ it in water. She ___ (put)

We Visited the Zoo

► Regular Past Tense Verbs

> Past means it is already happened, like yesterday:

You can add -ed to many verbs to tell about things that happened in the past.

We wanted to go to the city zoo.

I asked Mom to take us there.

Complete each sentence. Add the past tense of the verb in dark type.

- 1. We walked around the zoo.
- Sam _____ the young lions. (watch)
- 3. They _____ so big! (look)
- 4. Tara _____ away from them! (stay)
