

6) By the end of the Revolutionary War, the U.S. government operated based upon the Articles of Confederation. The "confederation" part of this document's name referred to _____.

- a) the Constitution
- b) the various parts of the document
- c) the United States
- d) Native American tribes

7) The Articles of Confederation established various things. Which of the following wasn't one of these things?

- a) a national government (Congress).
- b) independent states that enforced laws on their own
- c) a national court system
- d) each state was granted one vote in Congress

8) Which of the following is not a problem that the U.S. faced after the end of the Revolutionary War?

- a) Large debt
- b) Property damage
- c) Famine in rural areas
- d) Slowed trade with other countries

9) Consistent communication between the states allowed agreements on goals for the government to be reached easily.

- a) True
- b) False

10) In 1787, Congress called on representatives to meet for the purpose of _____ the Articles of Confederation.

- a) revising
- b) abolishing
- c) signing
- d) circulating

11) In order for a law to pass in Congress, how many states needed to approve it?

- a) 7 out of 13
- b) 10 out of 13
- c) 9 out of 13
- d) 8 out of 13

12) (Look at the Quick Facts on the last page of the section) Congress was limited in its ability to perform many necessary activities due to a lack of what?

- a) Unity
- b) Money
- c) Representation
- d) Communication