

Ch 5 Sec 3

1) Which of the following isn't a power of Congress?

- implied
- delegated
- special
- reserved
- impeachment

2) What article of the Constitution specifies the various powers that Congress has?

- seven
- five
- three
- one

3) Which of the following isn't a delegated power of Congress?

- create national courts to help enforce the laws
- regulate trade between foreign nations and the states
- maintain the military & declare war
- regulate immigration
- conduct elections
- create taxes & print money

4) Which of the following isn't a characteristic of an implied power?

- the elastic clause helps justify an implied power
- must be "necessary and proper"
- an implied power is only granted to the Senate
- an implied power is not specifically stated in the Constitution

5) Which of the following is an example of an implied power?

- declare war
- creating taxes
- conducting elections
- creating military academies/institutions to help maintain the military

6) Congress also has the power to impeach federal officials. Which of the following isn't a reason/cause for impeachment?

- obstructing justice
- lying under oath
- switching political parties while in office
- committing treason

7) The _____ creates and passes impeachment charges while the _____ conducts the impeachment trial if needed.

- House of Reps / Supreme Court
- Senate / House of Reps
- Supreme Court / Senate
- House of Reps / Senate