

Map Activity

Answer each set of questions given below per map. Answers only & write them neatly on this paper on the lines provided. Use the descriptions below & each map's title to answer the first question per map.

- A) The purpose of this map shows you how people made their living in the northern colonies on the east coast of the U.S.
- B) The purpose of this map is to show you the various routes of some European explorers during a specific time frame.
- C) The purpose of this map is to show you all of the original 13 colonies on the east coast & what they produced.
- D) The purpose of this map is to show you the routes taken by some tribes/kingdoms to trade with others.
- E) The purpose of this map is to show you the movement of colonial & British troops in Massachusetts marking the beginning of the American Revolution.

Note = information in parenthesis is where you will find the map in the on-line version of the textbook

Map on page 32 (Ch. 2/Lesson 1...second map)

- 1) Based upon its title, which description above best reflects this map's purpose? _____
- 2) Niani is what direction from Timbuktu? (intermediate direction) _____
- 3) What is the distance between Timbuktu & Sennar in miles? _____
- 4) What color represents the Mali kingdom...orange or yellow? _____

Map on page 45 (Ch. 2/Lesson 3...first map)

- 1) Based upon its title, which description above best reflects this map's purpose? _____
- 2) Havana is what cardinal direction from St. Augustine? _____
- 3) St. Augustine is how many miles from Havana? _____
- 4) Which two men explored a little bit of present-day Arizona? _____

Map on page 67 (Ch. 3/Lesson 2...first map)

- 1) Based upon its title, which description above best reflects this map's purpose? _____
- 2) Rhode Island is west & _____ (cardinal direction) of Massachusetts and is _____ (cardinal direction) of Connecticut.
- 3) Which city is approximately 75 miles from Salem? _____
- 4) Which two colonies produced both lumber & fur? _____

Map on page 83 (Ch. 4/Place & Time...New York = New York City)

- 1) Based upon its title, which description above best reflects this map's purpose? _____
- 2) Boston is _____ (intermediate direction) of New York City.
- 3) What is the distance between Boston & New York City in miles? _____
- 4) What colony claimed the area where the present-day state of Maine lies (zoom out on the map to help see the answer)? _____

Map on page 123 (Ch 5/Lesson 3...first map)

- 1) Based upon its title, which description above best reflects this map's purpose? _____
- 2) In what intermediate direction did British troops mainly move? _____
- 3) What is the distance between Medford & Boston in kilometers? _____
- 4) Who won at Lexington...the British or Americans? _____