

Fill in each blank with the correct vocabulary word.

1. On the _____, each worker performed an assigned task again and again at a certain stage in the production of the automobile.
2. The company needed _____ to buy raw materials, equipment, to pay workers, and to cover shipping and advertising costs.
3. During "collective bargaining" or talks with management, the _____ represented the demands of the company's workers.
4. Over time, Congress would take action and create numerous acts designed to _____ businesses from becoming too big, mighty, and powerful to help promote competition.
5. Public pressure for a federal law to prohibit trusts & _____ led Congress to pass the Sherman Antitrust Act in 1890.
6. If the company prospers, its stock rises in value and a _____ can sell the stock they own for a profit.
7. The people who invest in a corporation by buying _____ are its shareholders.
8. The people who invest in a _____ by buying stock are its shareholders.
9. The shareholders of the company traded their stock for Standard Oil stock, which paid higher _____ or profits.
10. The employees of George Pullman's railcar plant near Chicago went on _____ in May, 1894 when the company cut wages.
11. The _____ worked as a team to gain an advantage over their competitors.
12. During the late 1880's, almost all railroad companies adopted a standard _____ of 4 feet, 8.5 inches as the width of railroad track.
13. The _____ of goods decreased manufacturing costs so products could be sold more cheaply.
14. The _____ between both companies allowed them to become a single company that was more efficient at producing their product.