Amphitheater High School Parent Compact

Amphitheater High School Faculty in cooperation with students and parents will work towards improving academic achievement through the development of a partnership that will aid in the faculty providing a high quality curriculum and level of instruction through which the students will be supported by an effective learning environment.

Amphitheater High School will:

- Provide quality curriculum and instruction which enables the students to meet or exceed the state's student performance standards.
- School and parent programs, meetings, and other activities will be available on a nondiscriminatory basis.
- Provide information to parents and students of policies regarding homework, discipline, attendance, and other issues affecting students, parents, and school.
- Make available classes to aid students who require additional instruction in the areas of ELA and math.
- Communicate regularly with families regarding student achievement and provide reasonable access to staff.

Parents will:

- Be part of their student's learning.
- Have a time and a place available to study and do homework.
- Monitor attendance and tardies and be supportive of the reduction of tardies and absences.
- Monitor the progress of the student.
- Make sure school work is completed by the due date.
- Participate in decisions pertaining to the education of their student.
- Read and respond to notices from the school and school district as appropriate.
- Attend activities as necessary including but not limited to Open House, PTO, Site Council, etc.

Students will:

- Take part in the shared responsibility of improving their academic achievement in an attempt to meet state standards.
- Display a proper school attitude and behave in a responsible manner.
- Come to school daily and be on time to all classes.
- Become competent in organization and notebook skills.
- Complete school work and turn in work according to the established due date.
- Give parent or guardian all school notices and any important information received by the student.
- Believe that you can and will be successful in academic endeavors.

Amphitheater High School, in partnership with the parents of students targeted by Title 1, agree that this compact outlines the expected responsibilities and behaviors for the school, parent, and student needed to improve the academic achievement and move toward meeting the state standards.
